WESTON, OHIO, Nov. 20, 1886. Mr. S. F. Long, agent of the Ohio Farmers

Insurance Company, Napoleon, Ohio: Once more I feel incumbent upon me to acknowledge my gratefulness to your company, for prompt payment of loss recently sustained by the burning of my barn and contents in Damascus twp., Henry county. The total amount of insurance, $900 on the barn and contents, was paid me without question. I presented a bill for repairs on adjoining buildingsof#24.60and that was also paid. Three years ago I suffered a loss by fire and was fortunate enough to have a policy with the old reliable Ohio Farmers and of course they made my loss good. I desire now to say (and you may give it to the public if you wish) that I have carried all my insurance in the Ohio Farmers for thirty-three years, each succeeding year has strengthened my confidence in them until to-day I believe them to be a pure, fair and honorable Insurance Company, and as such shall recommend them to my friends and neighbors. J. G. CULBERTSON.

We note in the Live-stock Commercial's report of bog sales at the Chicago stock yards, on November 16, the item of nineteen stiffs at $2.75, the next lowest quotation being $3.40. It would be interesting to know just what these "stiffs" were. Were they hogs that had died en route of cholera, or from suffocation? And do the soap boilers in Chicago pay as much as $2.75 per hundred for stock of that kind?-Farm and Fireside.

The following facts were brought out at the Tri-County Teachers' Institute held at Grand Rapids last week:

In the three counties, Lucas, Henry and Wood, about $400,000 was expended annually for the support of the schools. The enumeration of persons of school age 47,343-Lucas 27,021, Henry 8,136, Wood 12,186. Of this number but 29,000, or 61 per cent., were enrolled in the schools and that some method should be adopted whereby more favorable results could be attained.

In Lucas county last year the per cent. of attendance was 49; Henry 81, Wood 82. Cost of schools per pupil-Lucas $10, Henry $7. Wood $4. Teachers necessary to supply the schools-Henry 125; Lucas 268; Wood 231; Nellie return with the can, they all shouted total 624-actual number employed 986.

"Oh, mamma!" cried a chorus of children, the orther day; "why did you let that grocer persuade you into buying some of that green tea again? The last stuff is so bitter it nearly made us sick. Why don't you buy another can of that nice fragrant tea that didn't taste bitter at all, and made us all feel so good?" And the good mother hung down her head, because she knew she had done wrong by her family in allowing herself to be overpersuaded by that other grocer, and immediately sent little Nellie down to H. Opening of the Rink Opera House.

The Graham Earle Comedy Company open ed the new Rink Opera House on Monday play of the "Danites." The company was well received, and from their gentlemanly behavior and good acting have won the respect of our citizens, thus insuring a large attendance during their stay in Napoleon, which will be the entire week. On Tuesday evening "Forget-Me-Not" was rendered and last evening the laughable comedy of "Joshua Whiteomb" was given to an overflowing seated, and withal a comfortable place of partment elegant and complete. The proprietors can be congratulated upon the auspia place of amusement such as the Rink Opera House gives them.

Everybody speaks well of the orchestra, which is composed wholly of Napoleon talent, under the leadership of Mr. Charles Jackson Their selections are excellent and rendered in fine style.

The newspaper fraternity are especially under obligations to Mr. Earle, who has so assidnmesty looked after their interests. Mr Earle, being an old newspaper man himself, fully understands the wants of the fraternity. We find him an agreeable gentleman.

Christmas Amusements.

A writer says: "I would suggest to forego, this year, the Christmas tree and have a "Christmas bag" instead. The money saved the county before. It will pay you to call will help to buy gifts for the little ones, who might have no other gift but your's to brighten their hearts this year.

"Get a large grain bag, or two bags if necessary. Place them in a convenient place. Then, as the presents are purchased, or made. the donor must wrap up each article separately, and label it so "Old Santa" can readily see for whom the present is intended when he opens the bag. Santa can add much to using cotton for whiskers and hair. Then, with a few comic gestures, he can, without much effort, keep the children amused. Let the family go into the sitting room before 'Santa' comes in with his heavy burden: then as the gifts are taken from the bag, allow each one time to examine their present before another in taken out, thus prolonging the pleasure. What surprise a Christmas bag contains! No one is "wise beforehand," as is usual with Christmas tree managers. It is surprising, too, to see how much a bag can hold."
